

Organization: Central Florida Regional Planning Council
Position: Mobility Coordinator/Transportation Planner
Salary: Dependent upon qualifications

Description: The Central Florida Regional Planning Council (CFRPC) seeks a dynamic, results oriented professional to implement the Heartland Rural Mobility Plan. The selected candidate will coordinate the requisite interagency agreements and financial resources necessary to implement a variety of mobility enhancing measures identified in the Plan and expand mobility options for the residents of the 6-county Heartland region. Primary responsibilities involve promoting the mobility plan among local elected officials, regional transportation providers and community stakeholders; obtaining support to implement the mobility options; coordinating with State and Federal transportation officials, and providing technical assistance to existing transportation providers within the region. This position serves the six Heartland Counties of DeSoto, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, Highlands and Okeechobee. The position requires work from two offices each week. Attendance and presentations at night hearings and meetings is required.

Requirements: Applicant must have a minimum of five years experience in transit management, mobility services or related programs and possess a Bachelor's degree in transportation or urban planning, public or business administration, or a related field. Master's degree in these or related fields may be applied in lieu of two years of minimum experience. Applicant should demonstrate experience in transportation program implementation, management and planning. Knowledge of and experience with State and Federal transportation funding programs is highly desired. Applicant must possess excellent interpersonal relationship and communications skills and be proficient in the use of Microsoft Office software. Must have valid driver's license or be able to secure valid Florida driver's license at time of employment.

Apply to: By January 31, 2012, interested candidates should submit a resume, cover letter describing experience and qualifications, and three professional references with full contact information to: Jennifer Codo-Salisbury, Planning/Administrative Director, P.O. Box 2089, Bartow, FL 33831-2089, or jcodosalisbury@cfrpc.org. The CFRPC is an equal opportunity employer.
